The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHA) of the California Environmental Protection Agency (Cal/EPA) and the Southern California Particle Center and Supersite (SCPCS) at UCLA are pleased to announce a meeting on Issues in the Assessment of Health Impacts of Gasoline Emissions in California. The meeting will be held at the UCLA Faculty Center on June 12-13, 2001. This meeting is a follow up to a similar meeting held at OEHHA in Oakland in June 2000. Topic areas include:

- Characterization of emissions from gasoline-powered mobile sources in California
- Source apportionment of gasoline-related substances
- Exposure assessment of gasoline-related substances
- Carbonyl compounds as an exposure concern for gasoline-related sources
- Toxicology and health effects of gasoline emissions

The meeting will be relatively small, with 17 expert speakers and 80-100 attendees in a classroom-style setting. Panel discussions on the meeting topics will follow speaker presentations. A general session will discuss issues of research design and future research needs. A detailed agenda will be available later in April.

We have assembled an impressive group of experts to speak at the meeting including:

George Alexeeff, OEHHA
Roger Atkinson, University of California Riverside and SCPCS
David Bates, University of British Columbia
Glen Cass, Georgia Technological University and SCPCS
Arthur Cho, UCLA and SCPCS
Steve Colome, UCLA and SCPCS
John Froines, UCLA and SCPCS
Scott Fruin, California Air Resources Board
Daniel Grosjean, Daniel Grosjean and Associates, Inc.
Debbie Kaden, Health Effects Institute
David Kittelson, University of Minnesota
Doug Lawson, National Renewable Energy Laboratory
Fred Lurmann, Sonoma Technology
Joe Mauderly, Lovelace Respiratory Research Institute
Jamie Schauer, University of Wisconsin
Barbara Zielinska, Desert Research Institute
Paul Ziemann, University of California Riverside

If you are interested in attending, please pre-register by sending an e-mail to Kanan Patel-Coleman at kcoleman@ucla.edu by June 5, 2001. Include your name, affiliation, address, telephone/fax numbers and email address. Space is limited and will be filled on a first come, first served basis. If you have any questions concerning this announcement, please contact Kanan at 310-206-0926 or by email. We look forward to an exciting interchange of ideas and hope you will attend.
